

Executive Proclamation

Office of the Governor

Whereas, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty, and concern for others, and each of these attributes can be ascribed to Lana Glanzer, who is retiring from the state of South Dakota after 38 years of service; and,

Whereas, On June 18, 1979, Lana began her career as an Adult Services and Aging Nurse Consultant with Department of Social Services in Huron, South Dakota; and,

Whereas, Lana has distinguished her service to the Nurse Consultant program by her commitment to excellent customer service, loyalty, and dedication to duty and has remained an influence and a close friend to her fellow Nurse Consultants and many nursing home facility staff within the area; and,

Whereas, Outside the office, Lana has been a long-time member of the Living Hope Alliance Church, a Sunday school teacher, and avid admirer of butterflies; and,

Whereas, On June 8, 2017, Lana is retiring to spend time relaxing, getting her condo organized to her satisfaction, spending time with all of her nieces and nephews, and being the "number one chauffeur" for her fourth grade niece's summertime activities; and,

Whereas, It is fitting and proper to honor this outstanding South Dakotan on the occasion of her retirement:

Now, Therefore, I, Dennis Daugaard, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim June 8, 2017, as in South Dakota, and I join her family, friends, and colleagues in offering her best wishes for an enjoyable retirement.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the state of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this First Day of June in the Year of Our Lord, Two Thousand and Seventeen.

Dennis Daugaard
